Programme of Classes

January - June 2010

Welcome

It's time to spring into action and we have a wide assortment of classes to help you do just that! Dust off the winter cobwebs by trying out something new or put a spring back into your step by returning to your favourite class. There is also a new adult jazz class in the programme and it ties in nicely with our 8-10's street class so it's the perfect opportunity for parent and child to get active at the same time.

Looking ahead this year, we have dancers performing at Go Dance at the Theatre Royal once again and we have a new performance for our very youngest dancers in March, so already the calendar is starting to fill up!

Last year the holiday programmes during Easter and Summer were very popular, so we would recommend early booking to ensure you get a place.

Our website is now live so visit www.right2dance.com for regular news and updates.

We look forward to seeing you all in the new term.

Aileen and all at right2dance
